

Birth Certificate

Q, If I do not know the answer to a question, what do I input on the form?

A, Please state "Unknown" for any answer you do not know

Q, Do I input my birth name or my Common Law name?

A, Please provide us with the name given at birth, this should be on the state birth certificate

Q, How do I register my children's birth certificates under the same account?

A, Simply remain logged into the site, select the 'Deeds' option and then 'Birth Certificate', create a new entry with your child's details.

Q, If I was adopted, what name do I complete the certificate with?

A, Complete with the name given at birth, if you wish to use another name (e.g., because you were adopted) contact us and info@commonlawcourt.com

Q, Can I access my birth trust fund now I have registered my birth?

A, The Common Law Court exists to provide a lawful remedy for any crimes committed against you. While people try to access such a trust it is not something that we get involved with.
