

Death Certificate

Q, Does the woman/man need to have recorded their birth on the CLC website to be able to do this?

A, The individual who has passed will need to have been registered with us

Q, Do I need to provide written permission for my family so they can record my death?

A, Your family does not need written permission for this however, if you wish to do this for peace of mind you can of course do so

Q, What if the exact time/ place/ cause of death is unknown?

A, All fields need to be completed, if you are having difficulty e-mail info@commonlawcourt.com for help

Q, What if the name of the healthcare professional certifying death is not known?

A, This information has to be entered, if you are having difficulties e-mail info@commonlawcourt.com for help

Q, Does the individual providing these details need to have recorded their birth on the CLC website?

A, It is not necessary